Workshop On "Integrating Technology In Education"

"Technology will not replace great teachers but technology in the hands of great teachers can be transformational"

The school caters to all the needs of 21st century education structure and to keep up the pace with the changes in technology, it organized an Inter School Workshop on "INTEGRATING TECHNOLOGY IN EDUCATION" on 28th April by Quality Education Asia (QEA) a name that needs no introduction. Various teachers of reputed schools of Delhi were a part of the workshop. The resource person, Mr. UDAI LAURA made the ambience remarkable by spreading the vibrations of using techno- savy teaching methods in education and solving petty problems in a classroom with just a click .He also updated teachers about how to upgrade software and download variety of applications for the informational usage. Various eminent educationists were invited for the day who enlightened and broadened the visions of ICT in education. The workshop turned out to be an incredible experience for all the participants.

Parent Orientation Programme

Commencement of formal education is a major developmental milestone and thus, naturally a cause of apprehension to many parents. The parents place the trust in the school authorities for the future of their young ones. To the parents who had newly become the members of MAPIAN family, orientation programme organized on 29th April, provided a valuable and unique insight into the MAPIAN ideology, philosophy, mission and vision. The points to be focused with respect to transition were discussed in the session. A small session about parents' role was also held.

English Week

“Language is to the mind more than light is to the eye”

The school celebrated 'Musings', the English Language Festival for classes I-XII on the occasion of William Shakespeare's Birthday. An array of events like Twist the Tale, News to paper, Book promotion posters, Creating class-y journals, Magazine making, Debate & Talkathon were conducted to promote and appreciate the use of English Language. Class VI students displayed their creative skills in the form of striking posters after reviewing various books to convince others to make reading a habit. To inculcate a passion to explore more about the language and to enhance the oratory skills of the students a discussion was done where the students employed the rhetorical devices and swayed the audience with their mesmerizing performance. The book fair was also held on the occasion to facilitate the students to browse out of multitude of books. The fortnight long festival culminated into 'Encore', the English Exhibition comprising of class-y journals, resourceful newspapers and artistic magazines showcasing the innovation & zeal of the students empowered by the English Department which was highly appreciated by The Guest of Honour, Children's Author Ms. Vajiyanti Savant Tonpe.
